

POCKLINGTON CLASSICS DAY

This event, which should not be missed, will offer a wide range of facilities and attractions to interest all exhibitors, young and old alike, including:

The Garden Chinese Restaurant, The Feathers Hotel and a number of local pubs will be open for Sunday lunch for light refreshments.

A number of local shops and supermarkets (including Sainsbury's, Somerfield and the Co-Op) will be open to satisfy shopping requirements.

The historic Parish Church will be open throughout the day, with guides available to describe its history and points of interest.

The well known Burnby Hall Gardens (with its spectacular water-lily collection), a recently renovated museum, excellent tea rooms and a band playing (2pm/4pm) will be accessible to exhibitors at a special concessionary admission price.

It is hoped that East Yorkshire Motor Services will again kindly provide free trips around local Wolds villages in one of its vintage buses.

Pocklington Detachment of the Army Cadet Force cadets will be assisting as stewards for our event.

A stall, publicising the work of the local branch of Guide Dogs, with trained and trainee guide dogs in attendance.
